Terms and Conditions

Invoices are provided monthly and in advance and payment is to be made via transfer and within one week.

The first two weeks of hire are free of charge.

Should you have to cancel classes as a one-off (i.e. due to a holiday) please give one month's notice.

Should you have to miss a class due to an unexpected cause (i.e. due to illness) it is your responsibility to let members of your class know that the session is cancelled. You will still be charged for the booking.

Should you wish to permanently discontinue classes or alter any of your class times, please give one month's notice.

Any damage caused to any of our facilities during your class will be held as your financial responsibility.

Though the advertisement of your classes is your responsibility, we support our sub-letters by including classes on our online and paper timetable, and by advertising on our Facebook page. Please provide us with up to date marketing material / information to help us to do this.

No chewing gum or food in our studio please.

Treat our facilities with respect and leave them clean and tidy for the next user.

Sub-letters must provide a personal liability insurance certificate prior to your first class, along with a DBS (for those working with children) a first aid certificate and the relevant qualification certificate (if applicable.)
